

World at a Crossroads:

Climate Change - Social Change Conference II

Date: Friday, September 30 – Monday, October 3, 2011

Place: Sidney Myer Asia Centre, Melbourne University

The second Climate Change-Social Change conference aims to contribute towards understanding and collective action, in Australia and internationally, to urgently address the climate and social emergencies that we must overcome if humanity and the planet are to not only survive, but thrive.

'A global ecological revolution can only occur as part of a larger social revolution' – John Bellamy Foster
